Abstract	This collection contains a variety of materials including textiles, Christmas ornaments, and photographs that once belonged to Norman and Molly Rockwell.

Preferred Citation

Betsy Holtzinger Collection, Norman Rockwell Archives, Norman Rockwell Museum, Stockbridge, Massachusetts.

Historical note

The items in this collection were originally found in the Rockwell home on South Street in Stockbridge following its sale to new owners. While most items had been removed from the house by the family, these items remained and were donated to the museum by the subsequent owner of the home.

Scope and Contents

The content of this collection is quite varied. A significant portion is comprised of travel photographs taken by Molly Rockwell during vacations to international locales such as India, Egypt, Russia, and Europe. There is also a selection of family photos, many of which contain shots of Norman and Molly with their children and grandchildren.

Textiles contained in the collection include a selection of Molly Rockwell's hats, with an accompanying hatbox.

Arrangement

There is no specific arrangement to the collection, although like items have been grouped together.
