

Can we talk?

Presenting the first event in a series:

Four Freedoms Forums: Town Hall Meetings at Norman Rockwell Museum

Thursday, January 26 at 5:30 p.m.

---

Breakfast Table Political Argument, Norman Rockwell
Illustration for The Saturday Evening Post, October 30, 1948.
Collection of the Harry S. Truman Library and Museum, ©1948: SEPS

The Tenor of our Times: Is Civil Discourse Possible?

Can we talk, really? What will it take to inspire collegiality and joint decision-making for the public good? Share your thoughts in a stimulating discussion with a compelling panel of experienced commentators.

To launch our discussion, brief presentations will be made by:

Representative William “Smitty” Pignatelli

Democratic member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, 4th District

Tammy Daniels

Managing Editor of iBerkshires.com

Dr. Asma Abbas

Associate Professor of Political Science & Philosophy, Bard College at Simon’s Rock

Moderated by:

Laurie Norton Moffatt

Director/CEO, Norman Rockwell Museum

Join us for a community conversation about the nation’s most pressing topics.

Free and open to the public. Reception will follow. RSVP’s encouraged.

For more information: nrm.org/talk

NORMAN ROCKWELL MUSEUM

9 Rte 183, Stockbridge, MA

www.nrm.org

413.298.4100