

NORMAN ROCKWELL MUSEUM

COMICS IN THE CLASSROOM!
Saturday, JAN. 12
10 AM - 4 PM

Educators' Symposium

Explore curriculum-based connections to comics and creative applications for the classroom in this day-long immersion for educators inspired by the Museum's current exhibition — Heroes & Villains: The Comic Book Art of Alex Ross. PDPs available. $30, $24 members.

- 9:30      Registration and Refreshments
- 10:00     Welcome and Introductions
- 10:15     Comics as Propaganda: Exploring the World War II Era
An illustrated talk by James Kimble, Ph.D., Seton Hall University
- 11:30     Heroes and Villains: The Comic Book Art of Alex Ross
A gallery tour with Chief Curator Stephanie Plunkett and Curator of Education Tom Daly
- 12:30     Lunch
Bring your own lunch or preorder a bag lunch, for $8.
- 1:00      Images of African Americans in Comics
An illustrated talk by William H. Foster, Ph.D., Naugatuck Valley Community College
- 2:15      Break
- 2:30      Comics in the Classroom: Exploring Curriculum Connections
An interactive workshop with Cartoonist/Educator Marek Bennett
- 3:45      Wrap Up, Trivia Questions, and Prizes

Marek Bennett

more info at
nrm.org

Many thanks for registering for this exciting symposium in advance by calling 413-931-2221 or by emailing at programs@nrm.org. We look forward to seeing you!

9 Rte 183    Stockbridge, MA 01262    413.931.2221    nrm.org

Ongoing support for exhibitions and programs provided by

